Clarabell Young Rainwater

ANSON - Clarabell Young Rainwater, 84, died Saturday, Oct. 30, 1999, at her home.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Monday at First Baptist Church with the Rev. Lee Welch officiating. Burial will be in Mount Hope Cemetery, directed by Lawrence-Adams Funeral Home.

Mrs. Rainwater was born in Boyd Chapel community, where she attended school. She graduated from Anson High School in 1934 and attended vocational nursing school in Anson. She owned Radium Gin and was a homemaker. She was a member of First Baptist Church and a "Pink Lady." She was a former member of Lioness Club. She married Maedgen Rainwater in 1935 in Haskell; he preceded her in death.

Survivors include one son, Weldon Rainwater of Anson; one daughter, Dianne Allison of Omaha, Neb.; two brothers, Burl "Bakey" Young of Duncan, Okla., and Tootie Young of Grand Saline; one sister, Mary Pat Dytri of Anson; five grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.
