

Lake Hamilton Voice

Lake
Hamilton, AR
91°F

Obituaries

March 10, 2005

Kenneth M. Rainwater

Kenneth M. Rainwater, age 72, of Hot Springs, died, Thursday, March 3, 2005.

He was born on July 1, 1932 in Hot Springs, the son of Maurice "Pete" Rainwater and Annie Connelly Rainwater. He was married to Betty Ruth Hunter on November 24, 1956. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Kenneth was Baptist by faith. He was in the United States Army and served during the Korean Conflict. He retired after thirty years from the Reynolds Cable Company in Jones Mill and was the owner and proprietor of the King Kone in Hot Springs.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 48 years, Betty Rainwater, of Hot Springs; his son, Randy Rainwater of Conway; his two daughters and one son-in-law, Lisa Dawn Adcock and Sheree Lynn and Scott Brooks all of Hot Springs; his two grandsons, Ryan Adcock of Russellville and Shane Adcock of Hot Springs; his two granddaughters, Brittany Farr of Conway and Tera Farr of Hot Springs; and a host of friends.

Services were held at 10 a.m. Monday, March 7, in the Davis-Smith Funeral Home Chapel, Hot Springs, with Rev. Dan Parker, Rev. Sid Hunter and Rev. Darrell Teeter officiating.

Interment was in the Memorial Gardens Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Shane Adcock, Ryan Adcock, Scott Brooks, Kevin Applegate, Tim Walley and Don Donihue.

Honorary pallbearers were Dr. Fred Divers, physicians and staff at the Genesis Cancer Center, St. Joseph's Mercy Hospice, the membership of Lakeview Assembly of God Church and Joan and Edward Rainwaters.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society.

Guest registry is at www.davissmithfuneralhome.com.