FORMER RESIDENT OF MINGUS PASSES AWAY IN ALBUQUERQUE

Luther Lee Rainwater, 58-year old former Mingus resident, passed away April 29, 1957 at his home in Albuquerque, New Mex., after a long illness of heart trouble.

Mr. Rainwater was born Oct. 6, 1899. He was a life-long Texas resident and was united in marriage with the former Miss Viva Lindsey of Gordon.

He had been a member of the Mingus Baptist Church since he was a young boy.

They later moved to Albuquerque, where they resided until his death.

Funeral services were held at the Baptist Church there and interment was in Albuquerque.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Rev. W. D. Rainwater of Atoka, Okla., and Richard Lee Rainwater of Kingman, Ariz.; one daughter, Mrs. Ray Hollenbeck of Albuquerque; one sister, Mrs. Bertha Hughes of Mingus; one brother, Bill Rainwater of Ranger; and seven grandchildren.
