i.
INTRODUCTION

This is a manuscript about families, both ancestors and descendants, from many walks of life. Although a lack of interesting stories and legends may be apparent, the main concern is to establish, as accurately as possible genealogical material which may prove valuable to many people. We are conscious that inaccuracies may exist, but hopefully the overall data will offset these.

One must realize in researching the family history that early pioneers endured long journeys often to new frontiers, being exposed to numerous hardships that affected record keeping in many cases. These included educational limitations, clerical errors, illegible recordings, transposing of records, etc. This should instill upon us to always strive to obtain as accurate information as possible.

The main objective of this manuscript is to provide a genealogical record of the ancestors of the Ziegeler/Tabor families for our children, Wesley, David, Sandra and John. All of the direct families are highlighted in bold. Hopefully this collection of information may very well assist others in the research of their families.

It is with great pleasure and many years of preparation in this project that the time has come to compile and publish the material acquired to date. Realizing this work is never completely finished only created a more interesting challenge for all of us to continue.

Hamilton, Tommie, & David Ziegeler.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Researching family history is a growing endeavor, once started we can never get enough. The challenge to go further is never ending and the value of the work is most rewarding because you have kept the ancestry of your family alive for future generations.

Credit must be given to Mr. Carl E. Tabor on his book, Genealogy of the Tabor Family, which started us on our journey into genealogy. Credit is also due to Kathryn Modenbach on her very detailed book, The Modenbach Heritage.

Much credit belongs to my son David who has devoted much of his time and resources in the research of our families. His efforts have been invaluable. I look forward to the day when he may expand on this current work.

A special thanks to my other children for their contributions, Wesley for the artistic graphics included in this manuscript, Sandra for her research at the National Archives and the Maryland State Archives, John for his research at the Virginia State Archives and various county courthouses and, my grandson, Sean who was my computer consultant throughout this endeavor.

With the opportunity for my wife and me to volunteer our services at the L.W. Anderson Genealogical Library, while it was located in Bay St. Louis, MS., and other than a general learning curve, the assistance afforded us by Anne Anderson, the director, in researching our own family histories was beyond approach and in so a lifelong friendship was created.

Thanks also to the many other genealogical library and courthouse personnel whose congenial assistance was always present and to so many others that offered information and assistance.

In conclusion a special thanks to my devoted wife Tommie who always assisted and supported me in this endeavor. Her untiring efforts will always be cherished.

EIGHTH GENERATION

8. Contantius Peirce (Joseph H.⁷, Joseph⁶, Isaac⁵, Isaac⁴, Samuel³, Thomas², Thomas¹). Born in Boston, MA. on May 9, 1801⁴⁵, died near San Jacinto, TX. ca. 1839⁴⁶. He married in East Baton Rouge Parish, LA. on November 26, 1823⁴⁷ to Mary Steer born in E. Baton Rouge Parish, LA. on March 20, 1800⁴⁸, she died in E. Baton Rouge Parish, LA. on February 1, 1837⁴⁹. She was the daughter of Samuel and Mary (Lintot) Steer⁵⁰.

Constantius' father-in-law Samuel Steer an Englishman, purchased Richard Carpenter's British land grant June 3, 1783. (Vol.1, p.112-114) He married in 1793 to Maria Lintot, the daughter of Bernard and Catherine Lintot. Samuel Steer was a wealthy planter and an intimate friend of Govenor Carlos de Grand Pre. Samuels' will was made in 1800 and he died four years later, being survived by his wife and three children; Samuel, George and Mary.

Note: The above information on Samuel Steer was found at the East Baton Rouge Parish Courthouse, The Spanish West Florida Records, Vol. XIV, p.61, his will starts on p. 78 thru 83.

Constantius joined the U.S. Army ca. 1818, listed as a 3rd Lt. in the Artillery Corps on April 18, 1818; a 2nd Lt. on April 20, 1818; a 1st Lt. on September 3, 1820; transferred to the 1st Infantry on June 1, 1821; resigned on June 30, 1825⁵¹. A June 1821 roster shows Lt. Peirce on duty in Baton Rouge, LA., listed as troops of the U.S. Army stationed within the precincts of the Creek Nation of Indians, commanded by Col. Talbot Chambers of the 1st Regiment of the 1st Infantry.

After his resignation from the U.S. Army he made his home in the Baton Rouge, LA., where he raised his family. He was the owner of the plantations "Gartness" and "Arlington." His son, Hamilton McKee, (who the author was named after) was like his father, a Col. of Volunteers in the Mexican War.

Evidently after the death of his wife, Col. Constantius Peirce entered the army as a Captain of volunteers, under Gen. Houston in the War for the Independence of Texas⁵³. A further listing shows he died in 1839 near San Jacinto, TX., possibly in the battle of San Jacinto?⁵⁴.

Died in Baton Rouge, LA. on September 2, 1878⁵⁷. He was married ca. 1856 to Mary Charlotte Baker⁵⁸. born in LA., ca. 1840⁵⁹, died in LA., after July, 1874⁶⁰. She was the daughter of John D. and Charlotte Ann (Wimbish) Baker⁶¹.

Granville Peirce attended Princeton College in New Jersey in 1845. His expenses were covered by an annuity left him by a maternal aunt Catherine (Lintot) Minor⁶².

A 1850 Census shows Granville and his brother Hamilton living together in Baton Rouge, probably a boarding house, the census shows Hamiltons' occupation as an assessor⁶³.

Granville operated the 640-acre plantation farm "Wilderness" located in the East Baton Rouge Parish, LA. area. The plantation was previously owned by John D. Baker, and inherited by his only child Mary Charlotte, Granville's wife.⁶⁴

Granville Peirce died of yellow fever during the epidemic of 1878. He was buried in Catholic Cemetery (St. Joseph Cemetery) on Main and 15th. Sts. in Baton Rouge, LA⁶⁵.

In the research of the Peirce family I found the Obituary of Hamilton McRee Peirce, Granville's brother, and my namesake, which I can identify with his nickname "HAM" so being, I felt a desire to add this tidbit:

At his residence, in this Parish, on the Comite Road, near the residence of Mr. G.M.Peirce, on Tuesday morning, May 1st, Hamilton McRee Peirce aged 42 years.

Gone to his long home, followed by the regrets of many friends who loved him well for the better qualities of humanity which shone contempicuously in his nature. Kind-hearted, genial "Ham" - fare thee well! "Green be thee turf above thee" and flowers perennial bedeck thy grave in emblematic _____imagery of memory's abiding freshness for thee. Further would we pray: - "Bright be the place of thy soul."⁶⁶

He was the son of George and Arabella (Petrie) Dole.

Lulie Peirce as a young girl attended St. Joseph's Academy (convent) in Baton Rouge, LA. Her and her sisters' Frances and Leontine seemingly boarded at the school, going by their composition books that were passed down thru the family. The books were from 1876 to 1879, they covered subjects such as religion, English and arithmetic, the penmanship and artistic designs were of the highest quality. Their writings are proof of the liberal arts and social education which were common of all refined young ladies of that era.

Children: Listed under Harry J. Dole on page 20.

TABOR FAMILY

1. William Tabor, born in Virginia, ca. 1671¹, died in Henrico Co., VA. ca. 1713². Married to Hagar Stovall ?, born in Virginia, ca. 1684, died before October 7, 1723³.

William Tabor aged 27 years as per deposition, was employed by John Worsham in 1692 and Edward Bratten, and Abraham Womack to clear and tend one whole acre of land lying and being on a place known as Cold Water Run being in Henrico Co., VA. It being _____ land and taking up by the ford of John Worsham and Edward Bratten and above Abraham Womack, did clear, fence, and tend one acre of land in and for the consideration of _____ of the said land according to the law of the county in sealing thereof. Signed William Taber^{4,5}.

Signed: Bartholomew Stovall Recorded May 1719⁹.
(Note: an original document also includes Bartholomew's son and heir George Stovall with John and William as heir to the 130 acres.)

Court 7 October 1723

P.294 Will of Hagar Tabor presented by John Tabor, her Executor, proved by Joel Chandler and William Lax, two witnesses; Stephen Hughes and Ashford Hughes, Security^{10,11}.

One of the most puzzling questions is the relationship of Hagar Tabor and Bartholomew Stovall, was whether Hagar was his wife before Anne Burton? Cameron Allen says "4 May 1719" Bartholomew gave to Hagar Tabor during her life, then to her two sons William and John Tabor, a tract of land in Henrico Co. We are of the opinion that this may refer to the "Item I gave . . . day of May" which is shown in his will. There is an indenture in Goochland County dated 15 February 1733 between Hagar sons' William Tabor and John Tabor and George Stovall, son and heir of Bartholomew Stovall, unto Hagar Tabor during her natural life and after her death to her two sons William and John Tabor for part of a tract granted Bartholomew Stovall by patent 16 August 1715¹². If Bartholomew had married after he came to Virginia in 1684, and before his marriage to Anne Burton in 1691, there could have been a daughter of Bartholomew, Hagar, who married Tabor?

WAITS FAMILY

FIRST GENERATION

1. John Waight, born in England, ca. 1708¹, died in Prince George Parish, Craven Co., SC. ca. 1762². Married in England to Mary, born ca. 1718³. Prior to 1757 the immigrant John Waight and his family sailed from Bristol, England headed for the American Colonies. The Waight/Wait(e) (s) families had lived in the Shires of Gloucester and Wiltshire for over one hundred years. John Waight and his family came to Charlestown, SC. aboard the ship St. Helena, whose master was George Arthur⁴. The colony of South Carolina was offering to pay a bounty to both the immigrant and the ship's captain in an effort to promote the immigration of protestants. This bounty may have been the determining factor in deciding which of the colonies the family selected. In 1757 John Waight and his family were granted warrants for 550 acres of land in Craven Co., SC⁵. John Waite Sr. apparently died before receiving a second grant in 1762. Thomas Waite and Andrew Johnson were executors of his estate in 1762 in Prince George Parish, Craven Co., SC.

Samuel as a resident citizen of Newberry District, SC, enlisted in the Revolutionary Army in 1780-81 serving two tours (7 months) of duty as a private soldier under the command of Col. Waters. He was in the battle of Eutaw Springs in South Carolina¹².

It is reported that Jacob and Eliza Waits caught the “Gold Rush Fever” and headed west in 1848 or 1849 from Georgia. They started their trip when their youngest child was one year old and their son Jefferson was born as they were crossing Alabama. They continued west to Oklahoma, but apparently became disenchanted with their long trip to California, so they turned around and headed back toward Georgia, however, they ended up near Lodi, MS¹⁷. where they made their new home. In the 1800's Lodi was a thriving town in what was then known as Choctaw County. In 1874, the state legislature decided that the county was too large and it was divided into two parts with the north portion named Sumner County, and the south portion remained Choctaw. In 1882 Sumner County was renamed Webster County. It is believed that Jacob and Eliza Waits never returned to Georgia and they are buried in the Old People’s Cemetery located somewhere along the Webster/Montgomery County line.
